The main attraction is the hundreds of photographs from the Sinatra archives, covering his life from his childhood in Hoboken, New Jersey, to his 1998 death. The text is rather limited to a mini-biography by Pignone, a foreword by Frank's best friend, Tony Bennett, another foreword by Steve Wynn, owner of the Las Vegas Golden Nugget nightclub, where Frank sang in the 1980s, and afterwords by each of Frank's three kids - Nancy, Frank Jr., and Tina. There are also numerous quotes from Sinatra's friends and contemporaries, as well as by The Chairman Of The Board himself. A nice coffee-table keepsake for Sinatra fans.
